

FREUDIAN SLIP

A Freudian slip is when a person is speaking and suddenly a word they did not intend to say aloud accidentally slips out. Freud believed it revealed subconscious thoughts.

FREUD QUOTE

"I almost invariably discover a disturbing influence in addition which comes from something outside the intended utterance; and the disturbing element is either a single thought that has remained unconscious, which manifests itself in the slip of the tongue..." (Freud, 1901, p. 84).

EXAMPLES

- A manager was accidentally says to an employee "I'd love to take you out on a date" instead of "I'd love to take you out to lunch."
- Ada intends to say how much she loves chocolate. Instead, she blunders and says how much he loves Charlie, who is sitting across from her.
