Expressive Discourse Jeanette Harris,1990 Psychoanalysis and Discourse Patrick Mahony,2003-09-02 After a detailed discussion of the significance of translation as a critical concept in psychoanalysis Patrick Mahony proceeds to a comprehensive examination of free association the cornerstone of psychoanalytic method Next follows the consideration of free association in its relation to scientific rhetorical expressive and literary discourse Mahony then begins a detailed study of certain aspects of the text of Freud s Interpretation of Dreams and of issues involved in the oral reporting of dreams Attention is subsequently turned to the analysis of Freud s own writing in general and specifically to Totem and Taboo Finally the author shows how his ideas can illuminate literary classics by Villon Shakespeare Kafka and Jonson and the debate about whether there is anything specific to women s discourse Writing as a Way of Knowing Katharine R. Reavley,1983 The discursive role of adjectives in the translation of Metropolitan Anthony Bloom's religious texts Mona-Ancuța IONESCU,2023-01-01 The book examines the ways in which adjectives contribute to the realization of the various language functions in several of Metropolitan Anthony Bloom s 1914 2003 spirituality works and transcribed talks as well as in their Romanian translated versions In particular it aims at offering an application of the communication theory of Jakobson 1960 1987 Kinneavy 1980 to Metropolitan Anthony s contemporary religious discourse and an investigation of the underlying lexical semantic and pragmatic relations carried out by the adjectival class in order for discourse aim to be achieved It also seeks to reveal the role of adjectives in the process of translation from English into Romanian more specifically in preserving the source text functions in the target language To this end the study engages in an analysis of the hierarchical communicative functions in the corpus as well as of the role played by adjectives both in the realization and transfer of the respective language functions The present book which may be of equal interest to researchers in linguistics and to theologians demonstrates not only the pivotal role of adjectives in fulfilling communicative purposes specific to religious communication but also their cohesive discourse role in Metropolitan Anthony s legacy At the same time it highlights the outstanding status of the adjectival class in establishing the functional cognitive correspondence between the source text and the target text in translation A Guide to Composition Pedagogies Gary Tate,Amy Rupiper-Taggart,Kurt Schick,Brooke Hessler,2014-02 This is a bibliographic guide written for newcomers to the field The book familiarizes writing instructors with the current topography of composition studies and directs them to the best books and articles for further exploration Computational Linguistics and Intelligent Text Processing Alexander Gelbukh,2014-04-18 This two volume set consisting of LNCS 8403 and LNCS 8404 constitutes the thoroughly refereed proceedings of the 14th International Conference on Intelligent Text Processing and Computational Linguistics CICLing 2014 held in Kathmandu Nepal in April 2014 The 85 revised papers presented together with 4 invited papers were carefully reviewed and selected from 300 submissions The papers are organized in the following topical sections lexical resources document representation morphology POS tagging

Theorizing Composition Mary Kennedy, 1998-06-25 The last 25 years have witnessed extraordinary growth in the academic specialization variously described as composition studies or rhetoric and composition What was noticeable about the field in its infancy was a preoccupation with practice a lack of emphasis on theory and an exclusive reliance on the writing process As its disciplinary status has grown the field has become far more theoretical Composition studies has expanded its focus reconceptualized the writing process and embraced a wide range of critical perspectives The result of this change is that terms such as poststructuralism social construction gender and genre which were largely unknown in 1965 now dominate discussion This reference book is a guide to the multiplicity of theories that have emerged to form the disciplinary foundation of composition studies The volume consists of 66 entries each of which is written by an expert contributor and focuses on a particular theory or group of theories While the entries show how various individuals have contributed to theoretical movements very few concentrate on the work of a single theorist Each entry first provides a critical summary of a particular theory or group of theories including key elements basic concepts and claims and information about seminal or particularly influential works It then reviews the theory s critical reception in composition studies and discusses its significance in the field The bibliography at the end of each entry lists primary texts and major scholarship related to the theory and provides additional suggestions for further reading The volume closes with a selected bibliography of important works
