

Philosophy

MRSM Language Policy is designed to assist students in acquiring and refining the linguistic skills in which:

1. All teachers are language teachers.
2. Language is a primary means of learning and communicating.
3. Language acquisition is to be promoted as a partnership between all members of our community including parents, students, teachers and staff.
4. Mother tongue languages help form cultural and personal identity and should be respected.
5. The shared experience of learning language creates cohesion among students from diverse backgrounds and promotes international-mindedness.
6. The learning and acquiring of other languages helps students to become global citizens.

Students are encouraged to use written language in a myriad of contexts as a means for expressing themselves powerfully, purposefully and creatively while reflecting on their learning and their lives, as well as connecting with the world.

School Language Profiles

Aims:

All MRSM teachers, staff, parents and students work to:

1. Enable students to learn and use language confidently in a variety of contexts.
2. Increase students' powers of written and oral communication through intentional assessment.
3. Promote student understanding and enjoyment of literature.
4. Allow students to explore different perspectives through language.
5. Encourage students to have fun and express themselves through language.
6. Provide support for students who are weak in any of the languages so that they can overcome their weaknesses.

Language and Literature: Mother Tongue/Language of Instruction

Malay Language (Mother tongue)

- a) Malay Language is the medium of instruction at MRSM Tun Mohammad Fuad Stephens
- b) The focus of the language of instruction is its application across the subject area and throughout the trans-disciplinary areas of knowledge
- c) It is also a tool for the development of social, emotional and cognitive skills.
- d) The language of instruction skill can be further developed by challenging students' level of understanding and providing good models of effective communication.

Language Acquisition

English as a Second Language (ESL) Instruction

- a) Mastery of English as a second language is in line with the National Education Policy
