demographic statistics is frequently a population census which provides hugely important data sets for policy makers practitioners and researchers working in a wide range of different socio demographic contexts The Routledge Handbook of Census Resources Methods and Applications provides a comprehensive and authoritative guide to the collection processing quality assessment and delivery of the different data products that constitute the results of the population censuses conducted across the United Kingdom in 2011 It provides those interested in using census data with an introduction to the collection processing and quality assessment of the 2011 Census together with guidance on the various types of data resources that are available and how they can be accessed It demonstrates how new methods and technologies such as interactive infographics and web based mapping are now being used to visualise census data in new and exciting ways Perhaps most importantly it presents a collection of applications of census data in different social and health science research contexts that reveal key messages about the characteristics of the UK population and the ways in which society is changing The operation of the 2011 Census and the use of its results are set in the context of census taking around the world and its historical development in the UK over the last 200 years The results of the UK 2011 Census are a unique and reliable source of detailed information that are immensely important for users from a wide range of public and private sector organisations as well as those working in Population Studies Human Geography Migration Studies and the Social Sciences more generally

Immigrant Japan Gracia Liu-Farrer, 2020-04-15 Immigrant Japan Sounds like a contradiction but as Gracia Liu Farrer shows millions of immigrants make their lives in Japan dealing with the tensions between belonging and not belonging in this ethno nationalist country Why do people want to come to Japan Where do immigrants with various resources and demographic profiles fit in the economic landscape How do immigrants narrate belonging in an environment where they are other at a time when mobility is increasingly easy and belonging increasingly complex Gracia Liu Farrer illuminates the lives of these immigrants by bringing in sociological geographical and psychological theories guiding the reader through life trajectories of migrants of diverse backgrounds while also going so far as to suggest that Japan is already an immigrant country

The Discursive Construction of Migrant Identities Charlotte Taylor, Simon Goodman, Stuart Dunmore, 2025-01-23 This edited volume explores how migrant identities are created and constructed in discourse both by migrants themselves and by others The contributors reveal how migrant identities are discursively constructed by those with lived experiences of mobility and those who view themselves as part of the host population This dual focus responds to a lack of previous research examining migration representation from both perspectives Readers will discover how the discursive constructions of migrant identities in different domains relate to one another The case studies include a broad range of text types from film government documents and narrative accounts to newspapers and Twitter They also cover a wide range of contexts including Argentina Australia Italy Romania and UK making this is a more comprehensive account of the framing of migration than has been previously accomplished The chapters all follow the same structure to help the reader learn how to investigate migration discourses using qualitative and quantitative critical discourse analytic approaches

Migration and Public Policy Vaughan Robinson, 1999 Comprises a collection of previously published papers on both international and internal migration Investigates the role of governments in encouraging discouraging or forcing such migration Appraises critically the motivation for state intervention including economic efficiency strategic considerations or an attempt to achieve ethnic racial or religious homogeneity and the intended and unintended effects of this intervention International Social Science Journal ,2000 Geographia Polonica ,2005 Modernization and Social Transformation in Vietnam Gerhard Mutz, 2005 Zeitschrift für Bevölkerungswissenschaft ,2008 Environment & Planning ,2012 Migration Into Rural Areas Paul Boyle, Keith Halfacree, 1998-06-29 This innovative book brings together the world's leading scholars of rural migration to examine the theoretical construction of counterurbanisation as a pervasive feature of most modern Western societies and in a series of specially written contributions based on original research indicate the problem and issues that the process involves touching on class gender community conflict economic and social change isolation and lifestyle This is an important summary of state of the art research in this important field of population geography Proceedings New Zealand Geographical Society. Conference, 1999 International Encyclopedia of the Social & Behavioral Sciences Neil J. Smelser, Paul B. Baltes, 2001 The largest work ever published in the social and behavioural sciences It contains 4000 signed articles 15 million words of text 90 000 bibliographic references and 150 biographical entries

Insularity and Development Emilio Biagini, B. S. Hoyle, 1999 This book focuses on the concept of insularity within development theory and within this framework provides a variety of integrated and illustrative cases Insularity is of the highest importance as so many countries are insular in whole or in part yet the concept is not devoid of ambiguity The main focus of the book is on methodological issues and the concept of degrees of insularity is introduced as a tool for a better understanding of the phenomena involved Environment & Planning A. ,2006-07 Palestine Exploration Fund ,1884
