Amanpreet Kaur's writing serves as a gentle reminder that despite life's challenges, we have the power to shape our own narrative and find peace in every chapter. This book is an invitation to explore the depths of your own soul, to uncover the strength that lies within, and to embrace the peace that awaits when you let go of self-blame. Amanpreet Kaur's words are a balm for the soul, providing solace and inspiration for anyone on the path to self-discovery and empowerment.

Studying for Your Early Years Degree Jackie Musgrave, Maggi Savin-Baden, Nicola Stobbs, 2025-02-28. A ONE STOP SHOP of accessible information for all early years students to help you succeed in your degree, increase your employability skills, and develop as an ethical and critically reflective practitioner. Part one gives guidance for students about learning in HE, specifically in the context of early childhood education and care, including course requirements, academic skills, and core knowledge. Chapters cover students' roles and responsibilities, safeguarding, understanding policy and professionalism, and ethical practice. The second part of the book looks explicitly at applying this knowledge and understanding in the workplace before tackling the final research project.

International Handbook on Education Development in the Asia-Pacific Wing On Lee, Phillip Brown, A. Lin Goodwin, Andy Green, 2023-11-20. The Springer International Handbook of Educational Development in Asia Pacific breaks new ground with a comprehensive, fine-grained, and diverse perspective on research and education development throughout the Asia Pacific region. In 13 sections and 127 chapters, the Handbook delves into a wide spectrum of contemporary topics, including educational equity and quality, language education, learning and human development, workplace learning, teacher education, and professionalization, higher education, organisations, citizenship, and moral education, and high-performing education systems. The Handbook is grounded in specific Asia Pacific contexts and scholarly traditions, using unique, country-specific narratives, for example, Vietnam and Melanesia, and socio-cultural investigations through lenses such as language identity or colonisation, while offering parallel academic discourse and analyses framed by broader policy commentary from around the world.
