Getting Started Reculturing Schools To Become Professional Learning Communities:

Getting Started Robert Eaker, Richard DuFour, 2009-11-01 Get answers to the most common question posed by educators seeking to build and sustain a PLC Where do we begin Access a solid conceptual framework and concrete illustrations of how schools operate when they are functioning as PLCs Two case studies examine schools that have made the transformation showcasing district and curriculum level efforts to focus on student learning Getting Started Robert E. Eaker, Richard DuFour, Rebecca Burnette DuFour, 2002 Getting Started Reculturing Schools to Become Professional Learning Communities answers the question most often asked by schools that are seeking to transform themselves into professional learning communities Getting Started Robert E. Eaker, Rebecca DuFour, Richard DuFour, 2009 Leading PLCs at Work® Districtwide Robert Eaker, Mike Hagadone, Janel Keating, Meagan Rhoades, 2021-01-25 Ensure your school district is doing the right work the right way for the right reasons With this resource as your guide you will learn how to align the work of every PLC team districtwide from the boardroom to the classroom Each chapter focuses on one of four types of teams and provides practices and tools for working together to foster a districtwide culture of continuous improvement Use this resource to align your district's work in a top down bottom up cyclical process Learn the leadership role the district office plays in supporting successful PLC at Work implementation and school improvement efforts Observe how collaborative teams at every level align their work districtwide to ensure high levels of learning in professional learning communities Study real life examples and artifacts of best practices in action Receive protocols and templates such as the Team Analysis of Common Assessment TACA form to move student learning forward Review a process for establishing a guaranteed and viable curriculum and discover strategies for analyzing student learning and making data informed decisions Contents Introduction Chapter 1 Starting at the Top The School Board and the Superintendent Team Chapter 2 Setting the Stage The District Leadership Team Chapter 3 Leading the Work at the School Level The Building Leadership Team Chapter 4 Improving the Learning Teacher Collaborative Teams Chapter 5 Envisioning an Aligned District Reculturing Schools as Professional Learning Communities Jane Bumpers Huffman, Kristine Kiefer Hipp, Shirley M. Hord, 2003-10-22 This important work documents and examines evidence of efforts taking place in rural urban and suburban Pre K 12 schools that are actively engaged in creating professional learning communities PLCs Literature is reviewed that defines and identifies the distinguishing dimensions of PLCs A five year federally funded research study is explained including the methodology and demographics of the six study schools and a synthesis of the 64 interviews A PLC organizer PLCO is introduced which realigns with Shirley Hord's original 1997 research The organizer provides the framework to explain the five PLC dimensions and related critical attributes The PLCO also merges Fullan's model Phases of Change 1985 which includes initiation implementation and institutionalization The authors provide extensive evidence of the progressive development of a PLC from initiation to implementation using exemplars and non exemplars from interviews that either hinder or facilitate creating and sustaining PLCs A new assessment tool the Professional Learning Community Assessment PLCA is also presented and can be used for diagnosis and evaluation of schools as they work toward school reform efforts Readers are also presented with information that connects professional learning community work to a new approach to school improvement Five case studies are included that can be used in schools and university classrooms for the purpose of engaging educators in reflection open dialogue problem finding and problem solving This first hand documented information provides readers with unique issues as they wrestle with the challenges of transforming schools into organizations that meet diverse students needs Lessons learned from this problem based learning can easily transfer to the readers own experiences and schools The authors conclude by highlighting significant findings reviewing the most recent related research that addresses sustaining such efforts and offering suggestions for school leaders to Teaching and Learning Secondary School Mathematics Ann Kajander, Jennifer Holm, Egan J Chernoff, 2018-10-24 This volume brings together recent research and commentary in secondary school mathematics from a breadth of contemporary Canadian and International researchers and educators It is both representative of mathematics education generally as well as unique to the particular geography and culture of Canada The chapters address topics of broad applicability such as technology in learning mathematics recent interest in social justice contexts in the learning of mathematics as well as Indigenous education The voices of classroom practitioners the group ultimately responsible for implementing this new vision of mathematics teaching and learning are not forgotten Each section includes a chapter written by a classroom teacher making this volume unique in its approach We have much to learn from one another and this volume takes the stance that the development of a united vision supported by both research and professional dialog provides the first step The Collaborative Administrator Austin Buffum, Cassandra Erkens, 2009-06-01 In a culture of shared leadership the administrator s role is more important than ever How do you maintain the right balance of loose and tight leadership How do you establish profound lasting trust What principles strengthen principal leadership This book answers these questions and more in compelling chapters that deliver the strategies and heartfelt inspiration essential to being the best administrator you can be Results Now Mike Schmoker, 2006-06-30 According to author Mike Schmoker there is a yawning gap between the most well known essential practices and the reality of most classrooms This gap persists despite the hard often heroic work done by many teachers and administrators Schmoker believes that teachers and administrators may know what the best practices are but they aren t using them or reinforcing them consistently He asserts that our schools are protected by a buffer a protective barrier that prevents scrutiny of instruction by outsiders The buffer exists within the school as well Teachers often know only what is going on in their classrooms and they may be completely in the dark about what other teachers in the school are doing Even principals says Schmoker don t have a clear view of the daily practices of teaching and learning in their schools Schmoker suggests that we need to get beyond this buffer to confront the truth about what is happening in classrooms and to allow teachers to learn from each other and to be supervised properly He outlines a plan that focuses on the importance of consistent curriculum authentic literacy education and professional learning communities for teachers What will students get out of this new approach Learning for life Schmoker argues passionately that students become learners for life when they have more opportunities to engage in strategic reading writing with explicit guidance and argument and discussion Through strong teamwork true leadership and authentic learning schools and their students can reach new heights Results Now is a rally cry for educators to focus on what counts If they do Schmoker promises the entire school community can count on unprecedented achievements Innovative Insights for English Language Teaching Methodology: Lean Filiz Yalçın Tılfarhoğlu,2021-12-15 Innovative Insights for English Language Teaching Methodology Lean Pyramid Response to Intervention Austin Buffum, Mike Mattos,2009-12-01 Accessible language and compelling stories illustrate how RTI is most effective when built on the Professional Learning Communities at Work™ process Written by award winning educators from successful PLC schools this book demonstrates how to create three tiers of interventions from basic to intensive to address student learning gaps You will understand what a successful program looks like and the many reproducible forms and activities will help your team understand how to make RTI work in your school Building a Professional Learning Community at Work Parry Graham, William Ferriter,2010 Get a play by play guide to implementing PLC concepts Each chapter begins with a story focused on a particular challenge A follow up analysis of the story identifies the good decisions or common mistakes made in relation to that particular scenario The authors examine the research behind best practice and wrap up each chapter with recommendations and tools you can use in your school Planning & Changing ,2008 Planning for Learning Mary Renck Jalongo, Sue Rieg, Valeri Helterbran,2007 This book represents the next step in the critical role that lesson planning plays in effective teaching The authors examine practices from many different areas of education in the U S and around the world to create an approach to lesson planning and evaluation that will work in today s diverse school settings The heart of the book demonstrates collaborative lesson planning for teachers at particular career phases preservice novice and experienced The Collaborative Teacher Cassandra Erkens,2008 Transform education from inside the classroom This book delivers best practices of collaborative teacher leadership supporting the strategies with research and real classroom stories Public Relations in Schools Theodore J.
