

A collage of US one-dollar bills is the background. The bills are slightly overlapping and tilted. The word "GRANTS" is spelled out in large, black, sans-serif letters on six light-colored wooden blocks, positioned horizontally across the center of the image. The blocks are arranged in a row, with each letter on its own block. The background bills show the portrait of George Washington, the number "1", and various serial numbers and security features like the green ink and the circular seal.
