- The deceased owner's death certificate must be attached to the application along with all other required documents. If you do not have it, you must obtain the death certificate from the local authority.
- Together with the application for a certificate of inheritance, you must submit an affidavit on stamped paper or a self-declaration.
- Your request will be noted and a tax inspector or administrative officer will conduct a thorough review to understand all the facts.
- Once the examination is completed and declared successful, the appropriate authorities issue the legal heir certificate.
- Normally, the process takes about 30 days from the filing of the application to the receipt of the certificate of inheritance. However, if there is an unavoidable unexpected delay, you must contact the Revenue Division Officer (RDO) or the Sub-Collector of the respective area.
