Getting There From Here:

You Can Get There From Here Bob Stanhope, 2017-12-11 I'd always wanted to travel except that I didn't know it. After graduating from college getting a job and setting out on my own I made some sporadic attempts to see some of the world. It took a while to figure out how and it was only after I got married that the two of us came upon a strategy that worked for us. This book is a collection of stories about my mostly modest opportunities to travel. This is not a how-to book. There will be no listings of the best places to go. You will not find even a slightly comprehensive guide to locations, National Parks, interesting cities, countries, or anything else particularly useful. However, I hope you will find some interesting and amusing stories about surprises that we encountered along the way.

You Can't Get There from Here David Patrick Cook, 1993

You Can Get There from Here Shirley MacLaine, 1975 Invited to visit the People's Republic of China, the author and a group of American women were not prepared for what they saw and learned.

Can't Get There from Here Todd Strasser, 2010-05-11 Her street name is Maybe. She lives with a tribe of homeless teens, runaways, and throwaways, kids who have no place to go other than the cold city streets and no family except for one another. Abused, abandoned, and forgotten, they struggle against the cold, hunger, and constant danger. With the frigid winds of January comes a new girl, Tears, a twelve-year-old whose mother doesn't believe her stepfather abuses her. As the other kids start to disappear, victims of violence, addiction, and exposure, Maybe tries to help Tears get off the streets if it's not already too late.

Todd Strasser, author of the powerful and disturbing Give a Boy a Gun, again focuses on an important social issue as he tells a thought-provoking, heart-wrenching story of young lives lost to the streets and of a society that has forgotten how to care.

The Poetry Reader Mark Yakich, 2024-12-12 A compact, eclectic, and teachable collection of poems based not on aesthetic, geographic, or historical parameters but on specific aspects of poetry and poetic practices ranging from identity and metaphor to sublimation and spirituality.

Decisions in Time Dottie Lovato, 2015-08-21 Darlene's life consisted of several huge hurdles that she somehow got over. The first hurdle is taking place and living in Darlene's head. She has a couple of habits and needs to desperately make some changes. Her father has issues also with his heart, two trips to the emergency room with health issues. There was a third issue with Darlene's father having chest pains that dwarfed into a heart attack. He never comes back home with his wife Sandra. Darlene spends more time with her mom because she is lost at home alone. Along with Darlene's troubles, her friend Debbie has her plate so full it's running over. Her troubles start with her ex-husband recruiting their friend Susan to set them up with two men, and the ex-husband John hires two other guys to watch Debbie. With custody court coming up, he wanted her to look really trashy by having a date with a man and then having one of these two men try to hook up with the two ladies. Everything works out for the best, though Darlene is closer to her Mom and Debbie has full custody of her kids and the two thugs are in prison for a
